

Desktop Group Manager

Columbia, Maryland

Description

Quidient is seeking a Manager for its Desktop Group with experience in developing 3D applications. You will be working collaboratively with cross-functional teams, building an enterprise-level infrastructure for desktop applications that run on top of Quidient's Scene Reconstruction Engine. You will be a quick thinker with excellent time-management skills, and strong collaborative skills. This position is full-time, hybrid, and reports to Quidient's CTO and Director of Software Engineering.

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in computer science or related engineering fields
- Experience building and delivering desktop applications in Windows
- Strong programming skills in C++
- Experience with designing and developing application-level B2B or B2G GUIs
- Experience developing 3D graphics, video game, CAD, or related applications
- Meet Quidient, customer and government security requirements, which may include, but are not limited to a background check, citizenship verification, and Criminal Justice Information Services verification.
- Live within easy commuting distance of our Technology Center in Columbia, Maryland.

Preferences

- Experience deploying high performance, low latency applications.
- Proficient developing UI in Python
- Experience directly or indirectly in Property & Casualty insurance technology.
- Experience with API-first, platform companies
- Experience working for early-stage startups (Series A or earlier)
- Experience with scene reconstruction in automotive, healthcare, body, apparel, and/or entertainment markets.

Compensation

The salary range for this position is $155,000- $195,000. Quidient benefits currently include Health Insurance, 401K plan, basic life insurance, long-term disability insurance, supplemental insurance, Holidays, and Paid Time Off (PTO). Title, bonuses, equity, allowances, and benefits commensurate with education, experience, and other qualifications.
